He who cannot dance will say: "The drum is bad."
— Ashanti

A fool and water will go
the way they are diverted.
— Ethiopia

To make preparations does not spoil the trip.
— Guinea

Human beings are related, like everything else, to everything else, to every other part of creation, that is, to every other aspect of the cosmos. Energy is always alive, radiating, and vibrating to some degree. All existence interacts and is interconnected by this activity of energies, say the knowledge-holders.

A person is made of energy, not of material, say the knowledge-holders. Terrible things begin to happen when the person is seen as material; for all is a network, say the knowledge-holders.
